Name	Class	Date
Name	Class	Date

CHAPTER 3 SECTION 4

STUDENT ACTIVITY

Survey on How to Help Those in Need

3

Ask ten people questions 1–10. Record their answers by making a check mark next to their answer. Then answer questions 11 and 12.

1. Should the government continue to use tax money to help those in need?  Yes   No    2. Does the government spend too much on programs to help people in need?  Yes   No    3. Does the government include too many people in its social programs?  Yes   No    4. How should the government help people without jobs?  Help them find a job   Provide food   Provide shelte    Provide medical care   Not at all    5. Should the government help everyone who is below the poverty threshold?  Yes   For a limited time   No    6. Should Social Security be paid to everyone who is retired?  Yes   No   Hot fit they have a retirement plan   No    7. Should the government fund medical insurance for all children?  Yes   Only if parents cannot afford it   No    8. Which of the following do you think makes up the biggest portion of the federal budget?  Social Security   Medicare and Medicaid   Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)    9. Should private programs take more responsibility for helping people in need?   Yes   No    10. Which is the best way to fund private programs that help people in need?   Government grants   Donations from everyone    11. Did most of the people you interviewed support public funding of the safety no    12. Do you think they understood the economic issues involved with government funding for these programs? Justify your response.
Yes	1.
Yes	2.
Help them find a job	3.
Yes	4.	☐ Help them find a job ☐ Provide food ☐ Provide shelter
<ul> <li>Yes</li></ul>	5.
<ul> <li>Yes □ Only if parents cannot afford it □ No</li> <li>8. Which of the following do you think makes up the biggest portion of the federal budget? □ Social Security □ Medicare and Medicaid □ Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)</li> <li>9. Should private programs take more responsibility for helping people in need? □ Yes □ No</li> <li>10. Which is the best way to fund private programs that help people in need? □ Government grants □ Donations from wealthy people □ Donations from everyone</li> <li>11. Did most of the people you interviewed support public funding of the safety needs.</li> <li>12. Do you think they understood the economic issues involved with government.</li> </ul>	6.
federal budget?  Social Security  Medicare and Medicaid Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)  9. Should private programs take more responsibility for helping people in need? Yes No  10. Which is the best way to fund private programs that help people in need? Government grants Donations from wealthy people Donations from everyone  11. Did most of the people you interviewed support public funding of the safety needs.  Do you think they understood the economic issues involved with government	7.
Yes No	8.	federal budget?  Social Security  Medicare and Medicaid
Government grants Donations from wealthy people Donations from everyone  11. Did most of the people you interviewed support public funding of the safety not people you think they understood the economic issues involved with government	9.
12. Do you think they understood the economic issues involved with government	10.	Government grants Donations from wealthy people
	11.	Did most of the people you interviewed support public funding of the safety net?
	12.	